Above positions are open continuously, which means the position does not have to be vacant for our office to accept your application. Your application will remain active for a period of 90 days. Vacancies for "Regular" category and other positions not listed above will be advertised via a "Vacancy Announcement" flyer.

You may visit our website at www.36fss.com/naf.html to view NAF positions available at Andersen AFB and to obtain our application package. You may choose to apply for several different positions at any time to increase your opportunity for employment. We require an application (Optional Form 612) and Declaration for Federal Employment (Optional Form 306) for each position you apply for. Resumes are also acceptable. All current NAF employees must submit an "Internal Application" form directly to the Human Resources Office (HRO) when applying for other positions.
